Your Gateway computer is packed with many powerful features. Icons and color coding help make setting up your computer as easy as possible.

1 Connect the mouse and keyboard

If you have a wireless mouse or keyboard, follow the instructions that came with them.

2 Connect the monitor (depending on your model)

If available, connect to Add-in video (DVI or VGA), otherwise connect to Integrated video (VGA).

3 Connect the speakers* (optional)

- 1 Plug the audio cable into the back of your computer.
- 2 Plug the USB cable into one of your computer's USB ports.

Note: If you have a speaker bar, follow the instructions that came with it.

4 Connect the modem (optional)

Connect the modem cable to the modem jack and the telephone wall jack. You can connect your telephone to the telephone jack.

5 Connect the network (optional)

Connect the network (RJ45) cable to the Ethernet jack and a cable mode, DSL modem, or network jack.

6 Connect the power cord

Connect the power cable to the computer, then plug it into a power supply. To protect your system from power fluctuations, use a surge protector.

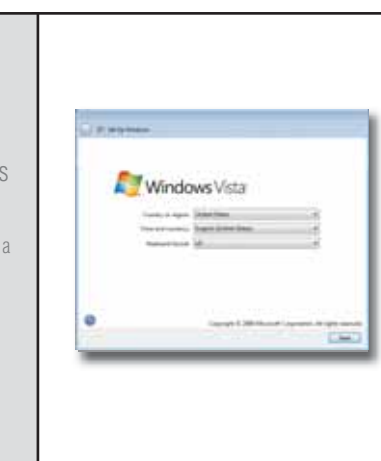

WARNING: To protect your computer during electrical storms, unplug the power cord and the modem and network cables.

7 Turn on the power (⏻)

Turn on the monitor and computer. Follow the Windows setup screen instructions.

IMPORTANT: Connect devices, such as a printer or scanner, after you complete the Windows setup. Follow the instructions that came with the device.
